

Question 12

Q: Why is the contour display terminated abnormally or does the results display not look proper?

A: The display may be improved by changing the settings for drawing results or updating the video card driver.

Please refer to the Femtet help menu below for more information.
Home>FAQ>Q2. What should I do if contour display is terminated abnormally or results display does not look good?